TEACH HER THE VALUE OF GIVING

in 5 quick steps...

Your child will have fun while learning the importance of giving to Jesus.

When you make it fun, it becomes easy to introduce your child to the concept of generosity and giving to missions. Each quarter, your child will enjoy an interactive project that is both sacred and fun. Here's how:

1 Download and print the latest Mission Offering Bank coloring page from AdventistMission.org/mission-offering-bank.

2 Cut – trim the edges using scissors.

3 Color – ask your child to use some fun colors to do the coloring-in.

4 Wrap the finished coloring page around a tin can or similar container, using sticky tape (be sure there are no sharp edges).

5 Save – encourage your child to place their dollars and pennies into the can.

When the can is full, help your child count the money, and then write and mail a check to Adventist Mission.
